

The Producer's Lounge Acquires ImageMaker

Two women-owned Texas creative shops combine super powers

August 1, 2017

Dallas, TX – Locally owned creative media and live event production company, The Producer's Lounge, announced today that it has acquired fellow video and event production house ImageMaker.

After a highly successful first decade in business, The Producer's Lounge is taking its game to the next level with the addition of this all-star team of professionals.

“The talented production team along with ImageMaker's luxury brand clients, made this decision an easy one. TPL has been strong and building steadily for years, but we just hit it out of the park with this venture and we will now be able to provide a greater breadth of services, capabilities and increased creative firepower.”

- Leigh Ann Vernon
CEO & Founder, The Producer's Lounge

The Producer's Lounge amps up its already substantial creative capabilities with this union. ImageMaker has a long track record and a well-deserved reputation for turning out top notch video productions and live events, specializing in the luxury travel industry.

“The connection between ImageMaker and The Producer's Lounge was already strong, so this creative coalition is a perfect fit – a match made in Heaven. Both our staff and our clients will benefit immediately, as this growth offers so many new opportunities and creative resources for all concerned! I'm proud to play a continued creative role in this transition.”

- Sondra Brunone
Founder, ImageMaker

“Our goal is always to create unexpected creative concepts for our clients and unforgettable moments for the audience. Adding the Jedi-like skills of our new team members helps us keep delivering those experiences again and again.”

- Dale Sindt
Creative Director, The Producer's Lounge
